NONPROFIT SECURITY GRANT PROGRAM INVESTMENT JUSTIFICATION

As part of the Nonprofit Security Grant Program (NSGP) application, eligible 501(c)(3) organizations must develop a formal Investment Justification (IJ) that addresses each initiative proposed for funding. These IJs must demonstrate how proposed projects address gaps and deficiencies in current programs and capabilities. Additionally, the IJ must demonstrate the ability to provide enhancements consistent with the purpose of the program and guidance provided by the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA). Nonprofit subapplicants must ensure that the IJ is consistent with all applicable requirements outlined below. Each IJ must be for one facility/location.

FEMA has developed guidelines that establish the required IJ content and helps ensure that submissions are organized in a consistent manner while addressing key data requirements. This form (Office of Management and Budget [OMB] Number 1660-011/ FEMA Form Number FF-207-FY-21-115) may be used by nonprofit subapplicants to complete and submit their IJ. Failure to address these data elements in the prescribed format could potentially result in the rejection of the IJ from review consideration.

Nonprofit subapplicants must use the following naming convention when submitting required documents for the NSGP-UA: "FY2025_NSGP-UA_<State Abbreviation>_<Urban Area>_<Nonprofit Name>"; and NSGP-S: "FY2025_NSGP-S_<State Abbreviation>_<Nonprofit Name>".

Applications should be submitted by the nonprofit organization to the State Administrative Agency (SAA) as a completed fillable Adobe file. Scanned copies will not be accepted. Nonprofit subapplicants should contact their respective SAA to get information on the application deadline and other SAA requirements. If an extension to the deadline is required, nonprofit organizations must consult with their respective SAA.

PART II. BACKGROUND INFORMATION (5 POSSIBLE POINTS OUT OF 40)

Please describe (if applicable) this location's symbolic value as a highly recognized national or historic institution/landmark that renders the site as a possible target of terrorism or other extremist attack.

Turne Theological Seminary is at an elevated risk of targeted violence due to its profile as a nonprofit theological education institution situated in a high-risk urban area, its regular schedule of worship and public events, and its open-campus ministry culture. The Seminary hosts a significant number of activities that draw students, clergy, denominational leaders, community members, and visitors to campus, including weekday and evening classes, chapel services, and weekend events.

Please select (if applicable) the current, ongoing, or recent (last 3 years) event(s) in which your organization has been involved in prevention, protection, response, and/or recovery:

Other

Please describe the organization's role in prevention, protection, response, and/or recovery, specifically highlighting the efforts that demonstrate integration of nonprofit preparedness with broader state and local preparedness efforts.

Turner Theological Seminary embraces a whole-community approach to safety and security. The Seminary collaborates with local law enforcement, fire/EMS, and homeland security partners to ensure that security enhancements support coordinated prevention, response, and recovery.

PART III. RISK (15 POSSIBLE POINTS OUT OF 40)

Department of Homeland Security defines risk as the product of three principal variables: Threat, Vulnerability, and Consequence. In the space below, describe the risk(s) faced by your organization specifically in terms of the A) Threats, B) Vulnerabilities, and C) Potential Consequences of an attack.

A) Threat: In considering a threat, please describe the identification and substantiation of specific threats or attacks against the nonprofit organization or a closely related organization, network, or cell.

Description can include findings from a threat or risk assessment, police report(s), and/or insurance claims specific to the location being applied for including dates of specific threats.

Turner Theological Seminary operates in a densely populated downtown corridor with substantial daily pedestrian and vehicular traffic. The Seminary's mission-driven activities, on an open campus create recurring soft-target conditions and increase the likelihood of encounters with individuals who may seek to disrupt religious teaching, ministry training, or public events. The affiliated denomination was the victim of a DVE attack in which 9 were killed.

B) Vulnerabilities: Please describe the organization's susceptibility to destruction, incapacitation, or exploitation by a terrorist or other extremist attack.

Turner Theological Seminary's recent security review identified several critical vulnerabilities across the exterior, interior, operational, and emergency-preparedness domains. These vulnerabilities significantly increase susceptibility to unauthorized entry, delayed threat detection, and limited emergency response capability.

C) Potential Consequences: Please describe the potential negative effects on the organization's assets, systems, and/or function if damaged, destroyed, or disrupted by a terrorist or other extremist attack.

If these vulnerabilities remain unaddressed, Turner Theological Seminary faces an increased risk of a terrorist or extremist attack that could result in the loss of life among students, faculty, and staff. Such an attack would disrupt freedom of religion by halting worship and chapel activities central to the Seminary's mission and could further destabilize academic and residential operations.

PART IV. FACILITY HARDENING (9 POSSIBLE POINTS OUT OF 40)

Section IV-A: In this section, describe each proposed activity or investment (as selected in Section IV-B), identify the vulnerability that it addresses, and detail the cost associated with the activity or investment. For each activity/investment, include the quantity, estimated hourly rate or estimated price per unit, and proposed usage.

Note: This section should include narrative information about all costs listed in Section IV-B. The objective is for the information contained in this section to allow reviewers to validate the need of all costs in Section IV-B.

Allowable costs include facility hardening activities, such as planning and exercise related costs, contracted security personnel, and security-related training courses and programs limited to the protection of critical infrastructure key resources. Funding can also be used for the acquisition and installation of security equipment on real property (including buildings and surrounding property) owned or leased by the nonprofit organization, specifically in prevention of and/or in protection against the risk of terrorist or other extremist attack.

Turner Theological Seminary requests $200,000 in allowable costs for security enhancements that address all identified vulnerabilities. The project includes $58,500 for access control systems such as electronic card access, door alarms, visitor management, and credentialing; $64,000 for upgraded surveillance with expanded interior/exterior camera coverage and monitoring infrastructure; $38,500 for facility hardening through reinforced doors, security window film, and perimeter lighting; $24,000 for emergency notification systems including panic buttons, mass alerts, and duress devices; and $15,000 for security planning, training, and exercises. All expenses align with eligible Authorized Equipment List categories and directly support life-safety, threat mitigation, and the protection of religious freedom.

Section IV-B: In this section, list all proposed facility hardening equipment, projects, or activities as allowable per the Authorized Equipment List (AEL), NSGP Notice of Funding Opportunity (NOFO), and Preparedness Grants Manual (PGM).

Kerwin Walker, kwalker@turnerseminary.org, 404-903-2134

Please assess your project management plan/approach. Assessment could include challenges to the effective implementation of this project and the coordination of the project with state and local homeland security partners.

Turner will oversee the project through its Security Enhancement Team (SET), led by the President & CEO or designee, with representation from Facilities/Operations, Business & Finance, IT, and Campus Safety. The SET will manage procurement in compliance with federal and state requirements, supervise installation and system integration, coordinate with GEMA/HS, DHS/FEMA, and local law enforcement, and track all milestones and documentation. Across the 36-month period, Months 1–3 will finalize the scope, specifications, and procurement. Months 4–9 will complete installation, testing, and integration of access control, surveillance, lighting, and notification systems. Months 10–15 will focus on training, Emergency Action Plan updates, and tabletop exercises. Months 16–24 will include joint exercises and refinements based on after-action reviews. Months 25–36 will assess system effectiveness, establish the sustainment plan, and complete all reporting and closeout requirements.

PART VII. IMPACT (4 POSSIBLE POINTS OUT OF 40)

Please describe the measurable outputs and outcomes that will indicate that this Investment is successful at the end of the period of performance.

Turner Theological Seminary's project will generate concrete measurable outputs that directly strengthen campus security. These outputs include the installation of electronic access control on eight exterior doors, deployment of forty-four interior and exterior cameras, reinforcement of all ground-level windows with security film, installation of ten fixed panic buttons and a campus-wide mass-notification system, and upgraded perimeter lighting at all primary entrances. Additional outputs include an updated and distributed Emergency Action Plan, multiple security training sessions for faculty, staff, and student leaders, and tabletop and full-scale exercises conducted in partnership with local law enforcement. These outputs will lead to powerful measurable outcomes that improve safety, preparedness, and operational resilience. The Seminary will achieve 100% secured primary entry points, complete surveillance coverage of critical areas, and the ability to issue emergency alerts in fifteen seconds or less. At least 90% of employees and student leaders will complete required training, increasing campus-wide readiness. Joint exercises will produce after-action reports documenting at least three procedural or coordination improvements. Collectively, these outcomes reduce the risk of targeted violence, enhance emergency response capability, and safeguard the Seminary's ability to worship, teach, and serve the community in a secure environment.
