Thank you for signing up for the MX Platform API!

We're excited for you to get building!

To get started, go to your MX Dashboard to get your API keys for the test environment and start using the API right away. We suggest you explore our APIs by visiting our developer documentation at docs.mx.com and review our Testing guides here for more information. If you are ready to move production, you can request access here.

We are excited to be your partner whether you're writing your first line of code or have millions of users.

Ready to talk to MX? Request a demo here.

Sincerely,
MX Product Team
